

Code of Conduct Policy

All Club members are bound by the Clubs Code of Conduct and must understand that any breach of this Code, may result in disciplinary action under the Clubs Rules.

You Must

- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of others
- Be fair, considerate, and honest
- Promote the interest of the Club
- Provide a safe environment for all
- Look out for and protect those more vulnerable than yourself – particularly younger people, minority groups and those that are sick
- Avoid using obscene or racist language that upsets others
- Report breaches of this Code
- Always treat Clubs property with care and respect

You Must NOT

- Bully or harass others
- Victimize, discriminate or abuse
- Upset others by being unpleasant, accusatory, or aggressive
- Participate in sports betting associated with matches in which you are involved.
- Speak to the media or use social media which may have a negative impact on the Club, and those associated with the Club
- Act in way that may bring disrepute or disgrace to the Club, and those associated with the Club

This Code applies to all interactions (written and verbal) and members must recognise they have a duty of care to ALL club members, staff, officers and volunteers. Any reported breach will be handled as per the Club Rules and could result in membership being terminated.
